MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Proposed Plaintiffs-In-Intervention, Mark Steyn (“Steyn”), Mark Steyn Enterprises (US), INC. (“MSE”), and Oak Hill Media, Inc. (“OHM” and collectively as the “Steyn Plaintiffs”) filed a Motion to Intervene (the “Motion”) in the present action brought by Cary Katz (“Katz”) against his own company, CRTV, LLC (“CRTV”). As set forth in the Steyn Plaintiffs’ Proposed Complaint-In-Intervention (the “Complaint”), this action between Katz and CRTV is nothing more than a thinly veiled attempt by Katz to render CRTV judgment proof and prevent the Steyn Plaintiffs from being to collect on their Arbitration Award in the amount $4 million dollars against CRTV.

Importantly, neither Katz nor CRTV has objected to the intervention of the Steyn Plaintiffs in this matter. Therefore, the motion should be granted as a matter of course. However, both CRTV and Katz have filed self-serving declarations in an effort to contort the facts of this case. In response, the Steyn Plaintiffs have provided the Declaration of Melissa Howes, the Owner and President of OHM, which is also supported by substantial evidence, in order to inform the Court of the true nature of Katz and CRTV’s duplicitous actions. A true and correct copy of the Howes Declaration is annexed hereto as Exhibit 1.

In addition, since the filing of the Motion, Katz and CRTV have taken additional acts in order to expedite their fraudulent scheme. Katz and CRTV have filed a Confession of Judgment, immediately following their receipt of the Motion, in an effort to prematurely end the case and provide Katz with a lien on CRTV’s assets. A true and correct copy of the Confession of Judgment is annexed hereto as Exhibit 2. As set forth herein, the Confession of Judgment is deficient as a matter of law, but Katz’s intent to abuse his total control over CRTV in order to obtain a judgment is further evidenced by its filing. Also, the Steyn Plaintiffs have discovered that between April 17, 2018 and April 19, 2018, Katz and Galaxy Media, LLC have filed 22 separate UCC filings in furtherance of their effort to further re-characterize Katz’s contributions to CRTV as secured loans. A true and correct copy of a Westlaw UCC filing search is annexed hereto as Exhibit 3. As set forth on the front page of Katz’s personal website (<http://www.carykatz.com>), Katz is the founder

1 of Galaxy Media, a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit 4. This is yet another example of 2 Katz trying everything in his power to hide the assets of CRTV before the Steyn Plaintiffs can be 3 made whole.

4 Finally, the Steyn Plaintiffs shall address Katz's meritless argument that Nevada law does 5 not afford relief for a preemptive injunction to prevent a fraudulent conveyance which has yet to 6 occur, as this is clearly provided for by the relevant statute.

7 For all of these reasons, the Court should grant the Steyn Plaintiffs' motion in its entirety.

8 II. ARGUMENT

9 A. While No Showing Of Proof Is Required, The Steyn Plaintiffs' Proposed 10 Complaint In Intervention Is Supported By The Facts and Evidence Provided 11 In the Howes Declaration.

12 As an initial matter, Nevada law is clear that a party who seeks to intervene is not required 13 to make a showing of proof, or provide any supporting evidence for a proposed complaint in 14 intervention. The right to intervene as a matter of right is codified by NRCP 24(a)(2), pursuant to 15 which a party must satisfy four requirements in order to intervene as a matter of right: (i) that it
16 has a sufficient interest in the subject matter of the litigation, (ii) that it could suffer an impairment
17 of its ability to protect that interest if it does not intervene, (iii) that its interest is not adequately
18 represented by existing parties, and (iv) that its application is timely. Am. Home Assur. Co., 122 19 Nev. At 1238, 147 P.3d at 1126. Similarly, the standard for permissive intervention pursuant to 20 NRCP 24(b)(2) provides the Court with discretion to permit a party to intervene when an 21 applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a common question of law or fact. Neither 22 of these standards require an intervenor to make a showing of proof in support of a proposed 23 compliant.

24 Regardless, both Katz and CRTV have submitted declarations in opposition to the Motion 25 which seek to contradict the allegations set for in the Complaint, and CRTV argues that the 26 Declaration of Michael Murphy should be disregarded because his participation in the prior 27 arbitration between the parties does not give him personal knowledge of any relevant facts. As 28 Katz and CRTV are well aware, the arbitration proceeding is absolutely relevant here, as it

1 specifically disclosed evidence and admissions establishing Katz's dominion and control over
2 CRTV, the operation of CRTV, and the funding that Katz provided to CRTV in the form of cash
3 contributions. To be clear, Katz testified about those specific issues, and there are numerous 4 accompanying documents that were exchanged which support the Steyn Plaintiffs' case. The 5 Steyn Plaintiffs have provided the Declaration of Melissa Howes, Owner and President of OHM,
6 who has personal knowledge of both the arbitration proceedings and Katz's control and operation
7 of CRTV, along with numerous exhibits and excerpts of testimony supporting her statements.
8 Although the Steyn Plaintiffs object and dispute vigorously that the confidentiality provisions 9 remain enforceable, they are nonetheless filing the declaration under seal to avoid any disputes in 10 this proceeding at this time regarding that issue. Again, while this showing of proof is in no way 11 required, it is important to provide show that the declarations in opposition to the Motion are 12 without merit, and to inform the Court of the true nature of the relationship between Katz and 13 CRTV.

14 B. The Confession of Judgment Is Deficient As A Matter of Law

15 The requirements and procedure for filing a Confession of Judgment are set forth in NRS
16 17.090 through NRS 17.110. Pursuant to NRS 17.100(2), a confession for money due shall require 17 a statement in writing, signed by defendant under oath, that "shall state concisely the facts out of 18 which it arose, and shall show that the sum confessed therefor is justly due, or to become due."
19 The Confession of Judgment submitted by Katz against CRTV has no such description with respect 20 to the facts underlying the alleged debt owed by CRTV to Katz. Notably, the requirement for such 21 a verification is to guard against a collusive or fraudulent preference, which is exactly what CRTV
22 and Katz seek to accomplish here. See Coast to Coast Demolition & Crushing, Inc. v. Real Equity 23 Pursuit, LLC, 126 Nev. 97, 103, 226 P.3d 605, 609 (2010) ("In the third-party context, the 24 'verification by...oath' requirement in NRS 17.100 protects against collusive or fraudulent
25 preferences") (citing McDaniel v. Sangenino, 67 A.D.2d 698, 699, 412 N.Y.S.2d 400, 402-03 26 (1979)).

27 The Confession of Judgment is deficient as a matter of law, and is further evidence of the 28 fraudulent intent of Katz and CRTV. As such, it is necessary that the Steyn Plaintiffs be allowed

1 to intervene and protect their legal rights as a valid judgment creditor of CRTV.

2 C. The Steyn Plaintiffs Have A Statutory Right To An Injunction To Prevent A
3 Prospective Fraudulent

4 Katz incorrectly argues in his opposition to the Motion that the Steyn Plaintiffs are not 5 entitled to relief with respect to a prospective fraudulent conveyance. This contention is wholly 6 without merit. As set forth in the Steyn Plaintiffs' Complaint, their cause of action for fraudulent
7 conveyance entitles them to relief pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 12 of the Nevada Revised 8 Statutes, including, inter alia, NRS 112.210(c)(1) which provides that they are entitled to "an 9 injunction against further disposition by the debtor or a transferee, or both, of the asset transferred 10 or of other property." As such, the statute explicitly provides that the Steyn Plaintiffs may seek 11 relief to prevent the further disposition of CRTV's assets, which is clearly warranted here as Katz 12 and CRTV continue to conspire together in order to frustrate the Stein Plaintiffs' attempts at 13 collecting their valid judgment.
14

15 III. CONCLUSION

16 As set forth herein, the arguments raised in opposition to the Motion are wholly without 17 merit. Therefore, the Court should grant the present motion in its entirety.
